MSD Executive Director Earns Lifetime Achievement Award

New Orleans – Medical Society of Delaware (MSD) Executive Director Mark A. Meister, Sr., was awarded the American Medical Association (AMA) 2011 Medical Executive Lifetime Achievement Award during the organization's recent meeting. Mr. Meister has spent more than 30 years supporting the medical profession at MSD and the New Haven County (Connecticut) Medical Association, along with other administrative roles in managed care, hospital administration, and quality improvement.

We are excited to honor M. Meister with this award for his outstanding work serving the Medical Society of Delaware and the Delaware medical community," said AMA Chair Robert M. Wah, M.D. "His high level of commitment to physicians and patients has been an asset to his community and to medicine as a whole."

Mr. Meister is currently working with Delaware physicians to develop a patient centered medical home model and is overseeing MSD's health care reform initiatives. He serves on numerous boards within the Delaware medical community and has been honored with several awards from MSD including the Daniel A. Alvarez, M.D. Distinguished Service Award.
