

MANDATORY REPORTING FOR MEDICAL PROFESSIONALS

PRESENTED BY THE CHILD PROTECTION ACCOUNTABILITY COMMISSION

Why Take It?

Delaware law requires that in order to renew your license, you must attest that you have completed training on –

- how to recognize child sexual and physical abuse, exploitation and domestic violence
- your reporting obligations under the Medical Practice Act and Regulatory Provisions Concerning Public Health

Training fee: $50

All New!

The 2023 Mandatory Reporting Training for Medical Professionals features videos from professionals within the child welfare field that walk you through how to detect and respond to child abuse and neglect.

Frequently Asked Questions & Answers

Q: How do I reapply for licensure?

A: You can reapply for licensure through the Division of Professional Regulation's website at https://delpros.delaware.gov/OH_HomePage

Q: Do I have to complete the mandatory training before I renew my license?

A: Yes. You must complete the training before every renewal, and you must attest to completing the training on your renewal application. Failure to do so will delay the renewal of your license.

Q: If I recently completed a mandatory reporting training, do I need to take this?

A: Yes. You must take the 2023 Mandatory Reporting training. The new training will be available on January 1, 2023.

Q: How do I take the 2023 Mandatory Reporting Training?

A: This training is provided by the Office of the Child Advocate. To complete the training, go to <https://stateofdelaware.csod.com/default.aspx?c=courts-oca> to create an account. If you already have an account, just click the "login in" icon.

Email OCA.Training@Delaware.gov
if technical assistance is needed