COVID-19 UPDATES

3-19-2020

In an effort to keep Delaware's medical community current on the latest information regarding the coronavirus crisis, the Medical Society of Delaware is sharing the following:

Four New COVID-19 Cases Reported in Delaware

As of tonight, there are now 30 total laboratory-confirmed cases in all three counties in Delaware since March 11. This includes four additional cases since yesterday. Of the Delawareans diagnosed with COVID-19, 23 are from New Castle County, four are from Kent County, and three are from Sussex County. The individuals range in age from 14 to 80. Three individuals are currently hospitalized; one is critically ill. Read more.
