LEADING THE WAY TO A HEALTHY DELAWARE

COVID-19 UPDATES

3-25-2020

In an effort to keep Delaware's medical community current on the latest information regarding the coronavirus crisis, the Medical Society of Delaware is sharing the following:

DPH Reports 15 New COVID-19 Cases

Delaware now has 119 total laboratory-confirmed cases since March 11. This includes 15 additional cases since Monday. Of the Delawareans diagnosed with COVID-19, 79 are from New Castle County, 14 are from Kent County, and 26 are from Sussex County. The individuals range in age from 1 to 90. Fourteen are currently hospitalized; seven are critically ill. Four patients who previously tested positive have fully recovered. Read more.

MSD Finds Answers to Your Questions

In an effort to get Delaware physicians the answer to the COVID-19 questions they have, we have compiled a frequently asked question (FAQ) information sheet with many of the questions asked by physicians and practice managers on calls with Delaware's public health leaders. We have updated this FAQ sheet to include information from tonight's conference call. Thank you to everyone who has taken time to submit questions. Read FAQ.

Are You Looking for Ways to Help During the Coronavirus Crisis?

If you are looking for ways to help, and if you have areas of medical, public health, and/or behavioral health expertise that could be utilized in Delaware's response to the coronavirus pandemic, the University of Delaware's Partnership for Healthy Communities is looking for helping hands. Please complete a short information form to be identified as a resource. Complete information form.

MSD Message to Delaware's Physicians

The Medical Society of Delaware's President Joseph J. Straight, MD and Executive Director Mark B. Thompson, MHSA have an important message to share with Delaware's physicians. Read message.

For more information and resources regarding COVID-19, MSD has created a coronavirus resource page on our website. View resource page.
