In an effort to keep Delaware’s medical community current on the latest information regarding the coronavirus crisis, the Medical Society of Delaware is sharing the following:

DPH Announces 215 New COVID-19 Cases and Six Additional Deaths

According to the Delaware Division of Public Health (DPH), 215 new Delawareans have been diagnosed with COVID-19, taking the total number of lab-confirmed cases to 2,538, including 249 who are hospitalized, 62 of whom are critically ill.

Sixty-seven individuals have died due to COVID-19 in Delaware with ages ranging from 33 to 98 years old.

The most recent deaths involved:

- 87-year-old female from New Castle County, hospitalized
- 72-year-old female from New Castle County, hospitalized long-term care resident
- 58-year-old female from New Castle County, hospitalized long-term care resident
- 51-year-old female from Sussex County, hospitalized long-term care resident
- 92-year-old female from Sussex County, hospitalized long-term care resident
- 76-year-old male from Sussex County, hospitalized

As of today, there have been 155 positive COVID-19 cases involving residents of long-term care facilities in Delaware. Thirty-eight residents of Delaware long-term care facilities have died from complications related to COVID-19.

The locations and number of deaths related to long-term care facilities are:

- Milford Center, Genesis Healthcare (12)
Little Sisters of the Poor, Newark (11)
Brandywine Nursing and Rehabilitation Center (5)
Atlantic Shores Rehabilitation and Health Center (2)
Governor Bacon Health Center (1)
Six other New Castle County long-term care facilities (1 death at each facility)
One other Sussex County long-term care facility (1 death)

Read more.

For more information and resources regarding COVID-19, MSD has created a coronavirus resource page on our website. View resource page.